Article 78 Unless otherwise provided in laws, regulations or the securities regulatory authorities in the place where the Company's shares are listed, the shareholders' general meeting may be held by way of physical meeting, or via video conference, conference call or by other means, for the purpose of facilitating attendance of shareholders of the shareholders' general meeting. If the shareholders' general meeting is held by other means other than physical meeting, the convener shall specify in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting the manners and procedures for voting. A shareholder who participates in a shareholders' general meeting in the aforementioned manner shall be deemed to have been present at the meeting.

Article 79 Shareholder may either attend the shareholders' general meeting in person or appoint a proxy to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf.

Individual shareholders attending the meeting in person shall present their identity cards or other valid identity proof or documents to prove their identities.

Article 80 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall have the right to appoint one (1) or more persons (whether or not such persons are shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and the proxies so appointed may exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorizations from such shareholder:

- (I) the shareholder's right to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;

However, if one (1) or more persons is authorized, the instrument of proxy shall specify the number and class of the shares in relation to each such proxy, and signed by a person authorized by the Recognized Clearing House. Such authorized person may attend the meeting and exercise his power on behalf of such Recognized Clearing House (or its proxy) in the same manner as the individual shareholder of the Company (without providing proof of shareholding, notarially certified authorization and/or further proof of its due authorization).

The notarized power of attorney or other authorization documents, together with the instrument of proxy, shall be lodged at the address of the Company or at other places specified in the notice of meeting.

Where the appointing shareholder is a legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by the resolution of its board of directors or other governing bodies may attend the shareholders' general meetings of the Company as a representative of such appointing shareholder.

Article 83 Any blank instrument of proxy or proxy form issued to a shareholder by the board of directors for the shareholder to appoint a proxy shall allow the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to cast vote for, against or abstain from voting and enable the shareholder to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted at the meeting. Such instrument of proxy shall contain a statement that in the absence of instructions from the shareholders, his proxy may vote at his discretion. If such statement is not specified in the instrument of proxy, the proxy is deemed to be entitled to vote at his discretion for any resolutions that do not have specific instruction from the shareholder, and the shareholder shall assume corresponding responsibility for such vote.

Article 84 Where the appointing shareholder has deceased, lost capacity, revoked the appointment or the signed instrument of authorization prior to the voting, or the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the terms of instrument of proxy shall remain valid as long as the Company did not receive a written notice of such event prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 85 The Company shall be responsible for preparing the meeting's register which shall include, among other things, the name of attendee, the identity document number, the number of shares with voting rights that the person holds or represents, and name of the proxy (or name of the relevant company).

The attending shareholders may elect a person to be the chairman of the meeting if the same is not designated. If, for any reason, the shareholders are unable to elect the chairman, the attending shareholders (including the proxies) holding the largest number of voting shares shall be the chairman of the meeting.

The shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee on its own initiative shall be presided over and chaired by the chairman of the supervisory committee. If the chairman of the supervisory committee is unable or fails to perform his duties, the shareholders' general meeting shall be presided over and chaired by a supervisor jointly nominated by half or more of the supervisors.

The shareholders' general meeting convened by shareholders on their own initiatives shall be presided over and chaired by the representative nominated by the Convening Shareholder. Article 88 The Company shall formulate rules of procedures of the shareholders' general meeting to specify in details regarding the convening of the shareholders' general meeting and voting procedures. Article 93 The shareholders (including their proxies thereof), in the course of voting at a shareholders' general meeting, shall exercise their voting rights as represented by the number of voting rights held by them, and each share shall have one vote. However, the Company shall have no voting rights for the shares held by itself, and such shares shall not be counted towards the total number of voting shares at a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 94 Where relevant laws and regulations and the Listing Rules requires any shareholder to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 95 When any shareholders' general meeting considers matters related to related-party transactions, the related shareholder shall not vote and the number of voting shares that he represents shall not be counted as part of the total number of valid votes. If a poll is demanded for any other matter, such poll shall be taken at the time decided upon by the chairman and the meeting may proceed with the discussion of other matters; the result of such poll shall still be regarded as a resolution passed at that meeting.

Article 98 On a poll taken at a meeting, shareholders (including proxies) having the right to two (2) or more votes are not required to cast all of their votes in the same way.

Article 99 Shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting shall present one of the following views on the proposals submitted for voting: for, against or abstention.

If a shareholder has conflict of interests with the matter to be considered, the relevant shareholder and proxies shall not participate in counting the votes or scrutinizing the vote-counting.

The chairman's decision shall be final, and voting results shall be announced at the meeting. The voting results shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 106 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put forward for voting at a shareholders' general meeting, he may have the votes counted. Such notice shall provide shareholders with information concerning the matters to be considered at such meeting and the date and venue of the meeting. Shareholders who intend to attend the shareholders' class meeting shall deliver a written reply to the Company twenty (20) days prior to the shareholders' class meeting. The date of the meeting shall not be taken into account when calculating the aforementioned time limit.

If the shareholders intending to attend such shareholders' class meeting represent half or more of the total number of shares of that class which have the right to vote at such meeting, the Company may hold the shareholders' class meeting; otherwise, the Company shall within five (5) days give the shareholders further notice concerning the matters to be considered and the date and venue of such meeting by way of an announcement.
